THE SOUTH LONDON PSYCHOTHERAPY GROUP

WORKSHOP 2008

CONTEMPORARY ISSUES IN MENTAL HEALTH

Working with Traumatic Attachment:

an attachment-based neuroscientific perspective

Speaker

FELICITY de ZULUETA

*Senior Consultant Psychiatrist in Psychotherapy and Group Analyst
For the Traumatic Stress Service, Maudsley Hospital*

Saturday 20th September 2008 - 9.45am - 1.30pm*

at

THE CASSEL HOSPITAL

HAM COMMON, RICHMOND, SURREY TW10 7JF

Felicity will present her theoretical work developed over 30 years, using attachment theory and the neurosciences to explore the nature of the profound difficulties people with traumatic attachment encounter. She will also provide clinical examples of her work. The presentation will touch on such issues as:

- Working with complex PTSD and Personality Disorder patients*
- Why patients can't move on*
- How to facilitate change*

The paper will be followed by small group discussions and a plenary.
